Enjoy a movie in Nairne!

The gorgeous family movie 'Cirque du Soleil—Worlds Away' will be shown in Nairne in July! The Nairne and Districts Residents Association is hosting the movie, which will be shown by projectionist Andy Marshall. Andy, who has lived in Nairne for just over 2 years, got into film projection while studying filmmaking at Hamilton College MAPS, and has run his business, Road Movie Mobile Cinema, for the last 13 years.

When Andy announced on his Facebook page that the Cirque du Soleil movie was available for screening, the idea of showing this movie in Nairne was floated on the Nairne Locals Facebook page. It was greeted with some enthusiasm by locals who use the page to keep abreast of local happenings. And when the community was asked to help fund the movie, 15 organisations came forward to provide that sponsorship in no time. So, come to the movies!

An accident, but no mistake

By Ruth Morris

It was never my intention to play ukulele, just one of those fortunate mistakes, chanced upon by being in the right place at the wrong time. I sensed I was perhaps early when I heard the random twang of short strings spiralling down the stairs, but I intended to wait quietly till my meeting began. The room was occupied by twenty ukuleles and their owners, who sat in a circle smiling at me. My laptop suddenly felt awkward and wrong, like being the only one in fancy dress at a party. I could wear it.

I had inadvertently interrupted the Adelaide Hills Ukulele Group (AHUG). I mumbled an apology and took the only unoccupied seat next to a familiar face, Phi Theodoros. She rapidly handed me 'Princess', and quietly showed me a couple of basic chords. Each only required one or two fingers, which made them easy to learn and recall. I had no grounds for excuses, I was being lured by default. The tutor then showed the group a three chord tune, which everyone set about mastering and assisting those nearby as required. This was far more exciting than taking minutes!

The sense of achievement from one lesson was addictive, and I wanted more. Before the next meeting I had purchased a lovely new ukulele from Wrights Guitars in Mt Barker. I couldn't wait till the next AHUG.

The AHUG (Adelaide Hills Ukulele Group) meets at 7.30 pm on the 4th Monday of the month, and the 2nd Wednesday of the month in Ink Pot's Creative Hub, 34-38 Gawler St, Mt Barker. To enrol or for more info, phone 8388 0353.

Nairne Market News

By Althea Miegel

Winter is truly with us, and we start to think about trying to stay warm! Come to the Nairne Market to shop for quality winter clothing and footwear. Let us help you stay warm economically this year!! The Market continues to have plenty of stock for our customers to look through and select from.

Currently Market management are waiting for the Mt Barker Council to come and resurface the driveway leading to the shed. It is not in good repair and, with the recent rain, has become quite hazardous. The shed has been closed some days as a result of needing to safeguard our customers and staff. It will be great to have it completed.

We are asked from time to time, “where does the money go?” I am proud to say, as a member of the Market’s volunteer staff, that the money the shop brings in goes back into the community of Nairne. Many sporting clubs, and the Oval committee have benefitted from the generosity of the Market. They, in turn, support literally hundreds of our young people involved, and gaining benefit from those clubs. The local primary school is another recipient of Market money, along with the Soldiers Memorial Hall, the Institute and Red Cross club.

Over a period of 50+ years I have lived in many communities in SA, and this is the first Op Shop of its type that I have known. Nairne residents, and the clubs that they are involved with, are very fortunate to have such a hard-working group in their midst.

We continue to welcome new volunteers, encouraging people who perhaps have some time on their hands, to come join us. Feel free to speak with shop staff, and/or Helen Carman at the shop on Tuesday mornings. Keep warm!!

Come and enjoy lunch or dinner at the renowned Chingari Restaurant in Nairne! We offer delicious mild to hot curries and a wide range of Indian delicacies.

Open Wednesday through to Monday, 5 pm till close. 56 Main St, Nairne.

‘Come Out Festival’ at Nairne Primary School

By Leesa Shepherd—principal.

This year we celebrated the Come Out Festival by ‘yarn bombing’ trees in our forest area and then adding extra objects that would swing in the breeze and sparkle in the sunlight.

Everyone contributed, and at one stage it was hard to find a class that was not heavily engrossed in finger stitching, knitting or designing. Most importantly it was another opportunity to collaborate and have some fun being creative.

We did have a few challenges along the way – rain stopped our opening ceremony twice, but the wait was worth it!

Have you ever seen trees wrapped in colour? Well, drop into our school and have a look at our fanciful forest!

News from the Nairne Community Sustainable Market

It was a cool but pleasant day on Sunday 23 June, when the Nairne Community Sustainable Market assembled again in the Nairne Primary School Gym. For this market, the bric-a-brac and face-painting stalls were brought into the gym, so the gym hummed with happy, enthusiastic voices and soon became cosy and warm. A children's activities area was set up just inside the gym, allowing children to do colouring or craft, or create origami under the gentle tutelage of Ayako Donoghue. Outside, the barbeque ran hot with sausages and eggs and bacon.

Barreloak Products.*

Players from the Adelaide Hills Ukulele Group had market-goers toes tapping as they browsed, and then Saxon Buchmann (12) stopped people in their tracks as he sang two songs from his choir repertoire.

Saxon Buchmann of Nairne entertaining the market-goers, accompanied by Ian Miller on keyboard.

There were too many stalls to describe them all here, but among those making their first appearance was Barreloak Products, who make rustic furniture and accessories from disused oak wine barrels. And Spinifex yarns created a gorgeous display of hand-spun, hand-knitted caps, scarves and jumpers, and continued to spin wool on the spinning wheel while looking after their stall.

Clothing created by Spinifex hand spun yarns

The market is the result of hard work and vision of Debs Buchmann and an able team of helpers from the schools' Governing Council. After the market, kids from the school chip in to help clean up. One stallholder, Elizabeth Barber of Libby's Cards and Sox, exclaimed "I have been to a lot of stalls in my time, but this is the first one where children come to me at pack up time and say "Is there anything we can do for you?" That makes this market really unique!"

Councillor's commentary . . .

Hello, and another brisk welcome to Winter in the Hills! I hope you are keeping warm. Following are some of the things crossing my desk since the last edition of Nairne News - in my view, one the best little community magazines in our corner of the Hills. Well done editor Cathy Smallridge!

Council budget items for Nairne. At the time of writing, the 2013-14 Council budget (incorporated in the Annual Business Plan) was still yet to be approved, but was expected to occur on 1 July. Among items anticipated to be approved in and near Nairne are:

- ◇ first stage of a three-year program to upgrade North Rd;
- ◇ new footpaths on South Tce (Old Princes Hwy) between Market Pl and Burns St; Burns St between South Tce and railway pedestrian crossing; Britannia Rd between Jeffrey St and Shakes Rd; Farquharson St from Main Rd to cemetery entrance; and across reserve between Haeusler Dr and Rachel Cct;
- ◇ upgrade of tennis courts at Nairne Oval complex;
- ◇ design of new skate park; and
- ◇ upgrade of Bald Hills Rd between SE Freeway tunnel and Old Princes Hwy.

New residential development. A formal Development Application (DA) has been lodged with Council for the first stage (99 allotments) of the residential development to occur at the south-western corner of Nairne. Made up of three holdings and totalling 45 ha, this area was included in the Ministerial Development Plan Amendment (MDPA) approved by the State Government in late 2010, which saw nearly 1300 ha of former rural land to the south of Mt Barker and at the edge of Nairne rezoned for residential development.

This first DA for the Nairne land parcel is still very much in early stages of consideration, during which close attention will be paid to the wider implications for existing transport and other infrastructure in, and near Nairne. Already agreed with the developer is the full, up-front construction of a new access road (Amos Rd) in the southern part of the zone, running east-west between Jeffrey St and Saleyard Rd.

Separate rates on new development. The new infrastructure - amongst other things, roads, wastewater services, sport and recreational facilities - required to satisfy the requirements of all the MDPA residential development now getting under way has to be paid for. The State Government's arrangements with developers in 2010 assumed an essentially two-way split between the Government and the developers. However, the Government has not been quick to provide necessary infrastructure (the proposed Park 'n' Ride on Dumas St in Mt Barker is an exception) and the developers probably are not in a position to start paying their share until a substantial number of residential allotments are taken up. And it would be unfair for existing ratepayers to start meeting the costs until other sources are forthcoming.

It is essentially for these reasons that Council has proposed the concept of separate rates being paid on new developments, by the developers, based on fixed amounts attracting to individual allotments as they are approved for development. Such rates are able to be imposed under the provisions of the Local Government Act; they would offset the costs of transport (roads), wastewater, and sport and recreational infrastructure. Where all three apply, about $14,000 would be added to the cost of each allotment.

In the case of the Nairne MDPA lands, only the transport separate rate would be able to be imposed. The existing wastewater system is considered capable of coping with the new development, and existing sport and recreational facilities are also considered adequate, at least in the immediate term. However, Council is exploring other mechanisms to see what other steps might be possible to enhance Nairne's current sports and recreational facilities.

Retail analysis. Coming out of the Nairne Township Master Plan, an independent analysis of Nairne's retail needs, in draft form, is close to being received by Council. Comprehensive community consultation will follow. The analysis is expected to address the essential need to maintain Nairne's Main Road as a viable business precinct, irrespective of any development applications which might come forward in relation to the 'Nairne West' area at the corner of Woodside Rd and the Old Princes Hwy, or the former Chapman's factory site at the eastern end of Main Rd.

Successful Council community grants. The following applications for community grants were recently approved by Council for various Nairne community groups:

Institute committee - internal refurbishment for future museum;

Lions Club - stage 2 of internal refurbishment of old railway station;

RSL - pictorial honour roll of WW II veterans; and Soldiers Memorial Hall committee - external doors security upgrade.

International Symposium sculpture for Nairne? You probably are aware that the Mt Barker District Council, working in collaboration with adjoining councils and Regional Development Australia, as well as business and the general community, has brought about the installation of eight world-standard sculptures in public places. Another eight are intended in both 2014 and 2016. The average cost for each sculpture has been around $30,000. Do we want a sculpture to become a feature in Nairne? It would require a considerable effort to help raise the funds and to otherwise prepare for such a concept.

If you are interested, please contact me to explore ways in which this might be achieved.

Well, that's it for this edition of Nairne News. Please feel free to contact me (or one of my North Ward colleagues, Jeff Bettcher, Lyn Stokes or Simon Westwood) if you would like more information on the above issues, or anything else related to Council's activities. And, for more up-to-date information on issues and events as they come to hand, please check my Facebook site.

Magic Harvest—Nairne

By Chris Banks

You may have heard about this gardening program in the previous issues of the Nairne News, but for those who don't know, it's for non-gardeners who want to learn about how to get started. The focus is on starting small, say one square metre, get the seeds or seedlings in the ground, cook the produce & pass the information onto someone else.

The autumn planting season has just finished and we had a very enthusiastic group of about twelve people who attended sessions held at the Duck Flat Community Garden or the Mt Barker Community Centre to learn about composting, cooking what we grew (yummy soups & salads), wicking beds, raising seedlings, seed saving, worm farms and a lot of shared information. Inevitably, someone has an excess of silverbeet or rocket, so a food swap happened spontaneously every week. One week we had a cook to demonstrate what to do with all that kale that grows so vigorously at this time of year - it was delicious and far too good for the chooks! As a celebration at the end, we had a feast with everyone contributing their produce to add to the table (makes for very easy, nutritious catering).

We will be running a spring series in September, so if anyone is interested, the program is free - supported by a grant from the Mt Barker Council, Adelaide Hills Community Health Service and Mt Barker Community Centre. Register your interest with megan.collins@health.sa.gov.au or phone 8393 1727 by the end of August.

Australian Red Cross, Nairne Branch.

By Barb Milne

Australian Red Cross is a non-profit, humanitarian organisation dedicated to improving the lives of the most vulnerable people in Australia, and throughout the world. Red Cross is uniquely positioned as an independent organisation with no political, religious or cultural affiliation. This allows us to assist people in need wherever, and whenever, it's needed most.

In 2014, Red Cross in Australia will celebrate 100 years of service. On 13 August 1914, nine days after the outbreak of World War I, Lady Helen Munro-Ferguson, wife of the Governor-General, formed a branch of the British Red Cross at Government House, Melbourne. She called on the wives of the Governors in each Australian state to form a local committee in each capital city. Red Cross was thus formally established in Australia.

During World War II, Red Cross was the largest charitable organisation in Australia, both in terms of the scale of its operations, and also in the support it received from the Australian people. The post-war period saw reconstruction and regeneration that focused on social welfare, national emergencies, natural disasters such as floods and bushfires, and development of the blood bank and first aid programs, which were sustained by the extensive branch network and thousands of volunteers.

For $5.00 a year you can become a branch member and share in local activities, fundraising, volunteering and emergency services training. The local Branch members meet at the Nairne Institute on the 1st Wednesday of the month at 12.30 pm. BUT please note, just for the month of July, our meeting is on the 2nd Wednesday (10 July) 12.30 till 3.00 pm. New members are most welcome.

For further information please contact Barbara Milne on 8388 0642.

ST. JAMES ANGLICAN CHURCH - BLAKISTON

By Ronda Jaensch

It is now winter and somehow it seems the wind is a little colder up on the hill near the Anglican Church, but inside it is warm, and the welcome and fellowship after each service is friendly.

During the autumn we were privileged to have several groups of interested people visit our church for a talk on the history of the building and area. This has been most rewarding, both for the visitors and for our own parishioners, as there is always something to be learnt. During one visit it was while looking at the graffiti carved into the church walls many years ago. One such notice says 'Prudence is a Tart'; but a sweet old English lady advised us that in the early days 'tart' was short for 'sweetheart'. We now all think more fondly of Prudence.

However, during July the church will be closed and the services will be held in other churches in the Parish. Mount Barker has a 9 am Mass each Sunday, and there are other services at Echunga or Macclesfield. There will also be Mass on weekdays and the times for these can be found on the board outside Mt. Barker Church.

The reason for the closure of St. James is that for several years we have had problems with the front steps; they are well-worn and quite steep with difficulties arising for older people.

We are now about to correct this matter. The preparation for this has taken some time as the matter had to pass the Heritage board, because the church is a significant one in the history of South Australia and has been heritage listed, therefore the plans needed to be within keeping of the heritage appearance of St. James.

On Sunday 28 July we will celebrate our PATRONAL FESTIVAL, i.e. it is St. James Day. The whole Parish will worship together to give thanks for the blessings we have all received from our Lord. Following the Mass at 10.30 am, the parish family will share lunch at The Great Eastern Hotel.

The church will then be closed until the new ramp and steps are complete, as it would not be possible for people to enter without steps. We hope that people who often tell us the steps are too difficult will be able to easily manage the new and beautiful surrounds to our historic church.

Some of our local sponsors: EBERT & JONAS CABINETMAKERS, HILLS HIRE, BLACK STUMP TREE SERVICES, HALLETT HOME AND GARDEN SERVICES, NAIRNE FOODMART & NEWSAGENCY, NAIRNE POST OFFICE, ABIDE PICTURE FRAMERS, CUPCAKE CRUMBZ, OAKFORD HOMES, DISTRICT HOTEL, HOWARD VINEYARD, NAIRNE PHARMACY

We thank all our sponsors sincerely for their support and trust all the Rams supporters do the right thing and support those that support us.

We welcome Josh Hubbard to the Rams this year as our No 1 ruckman. Here is a profile:

Lives at: Marden. Nickname: Hubs, J-Hub. Jumper number: 11.

Previous clubs: Central Districts, Gepps Cross.

Favourite position: Ruck. Would love to say wing, BUT that's never going to happen.

AFL team: Don't support an AFL team so I'll say Nairne Bremer United.

Favourite food: Hawaiian pizza with pepperoni, and classic chocolate milk.

Hobbies outside football: Going out with mates, spending time with family, gym, guitar, beach, basketball, Zhivago's. Marital status: Single. Occupation: Auditor.

It is with much delight the Nairne Bremer United Football Club announces Thomas Foods International as our oval sponsor for the next 3 seasons. Formerly known as T&R Pastoral, Australia's largest family-owned meat processing company recently unveiled its new brand and logo at its restored and developed farm on the outskirts of Nairne, which it will now roll out in Australia, and to more than 80 countries worldwide. Strong family values are the cornerstone of the global growth strategy for the new-look Thomas Foods International. Thomas Foods International Chief Executive Officer, Darren Thomas, says the new brand is a commitment to the company's heritage and values as well as a launch pad to its future.

Uniting and Lutheran Church News

The Uniting Church in Allargue Street, Nairne, which was originally a small stone construction built in 1854, began as the Primitive Methodist Church. This building was extended in 1884 and is the building which is still in use today, and owned is by the Uniting Church.

UNITING CHURCH SERVICES are held weekly in this church, commencing at 10.30 am every Sunday, except for the third Sunday in the month when they combine with the Lutheran congregation in their service which commences at 8.30 am.

On Sunday 14 July 2013 the Uniting Service, which commences at 10.30 am, will have Albert Patrizi as the guest preacher. In 2012 Albert completed his theological studies, which included a placement working as a chaplain at Yatala Prison. Albert hopes to go into a half-time placement as a chaplain at Yatala and Mobilong, but this is subject to funding being made available.

“It’s such an important ministry”, Albert says. “These guys are at rock bottom; they’re looking down to the ground, their lives have been torn apart. As you build relationships with them, you see them grasping hope and lifting their heads – you see God’s spirit in it all.”

LUTHERAN CHURCH SERVICES are also held weekly and commence at 8.30 am, except for the fifth Sunday in a month when they combine with the Uniting congregation at the 10.30 am service.

The 8.30 am services are led by Pastor John Ridenour, who has come to service the Redeemer Nairne and St Paul’s Hahndorf congregations for the next two years. Pastor Ridenour originates from California USA.

A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ANYONE WISHING TO ATTEND THESE SERVICES.

OLIVE GROVE
Mt Barker, Adelaide Hills

Ink Pot Arts' vision is to provide high quality arts experiences to foster creativity and nurture well being, and to build community through arts engagement. At the launch, artistic director, Jo-anne Sarre said "Each project that we embark upon gives rise to numerous personal, artistic and social gifts which happen through us connecting together in creative enterprise. This synergy, where multiple elements interact to create an effect far greater than its parts, is a crucible in which magic can happen."

Everyone is invited to help support Ink Pot Arts by subscribing to the Friends program. Friends receive 2 for 1 offers on Ink Pot theatre tickets, an option to reserve seating, and special discounts from a range of Ink Pot Arts sponsors. For more information, contact Jo-anne on quill@inkpot.com.au or ring 0429 673 327.

The Wild side of Learning

Children at Littlehampton Child Care Centre experienced a 'wild day' of learning on 20 May this year.

The children were introduced to a range of Aussie animals including a baby python, adult python, baby crocodile, gecko, tawny frogmouth, bettong, sugar glider and a goanna in a hands-on educational visit from Animals Anonymous.

In addition to learning what each of these unique Australian animals looked like, children were able to touch them and watch them as they crawled, walked and flew around the group.

The children were delighted by the different textures and colours of our amazing native animals and were introduced to the key concepts of protecting and respecting our unique Australian fauna.

Who could have thought that learning could possibly be this much fun!?
